PREFACE.

Since the year 1860 an increasing interest in historical and genealogical matters has been manifest even to the most careless observer. The publication in 1862 of A Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England, by the late Hon. James Savage, gave an impetus to genealogical research, the effect of which was almost immediately made apparent in the array of family histories that issued from the press.

The object of the following pages is to present to the reader a concisely arranged and reliable account of a family, which, if not among the very earliest of those coming to New England, can hardly be rivalled in the number of its male descendants, or in the tenacity with which its members, until within fifty years, have clung to the locality selected by their ancestor as his habitation more than two hundred years ago.

The arrangement adopted in the work is almost identical with that for some time past in use in the Register of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society, and is thought to have decided advantages over others, both in simplicity and in convenience. Under the respective male heads of families are arranged in tabular form the names of the children, each with a distinctive numeral which is retained throughout. The sign + preceding such numeral, indicates the existence, further on in the work, of more information concerning that member; while the numeral enclosed in brackets is the distinctive numeral of the father, to be found in its proper place in the preceding pages. Thus, on page 58 the issue of (58) 165 Benjamin Pond are shown to be +396 John, 387 Polly, etc; John's issue in their turn being found on page 104, while Benjamin's father is found readily by reference to the bracketted number (58), in its proper place on a previous page. By remembering that the number affixed to the name is distinctive throughout the work, no difficulty will be experienced by those unfamiliar with genealogical works in extracting the information of which they are in search.

My thanks are due to Mr. A. V. G. POND of Mendon, for active assistance rendered in the prosecution of this work; also to Messrs. ABEL POND of Holliston, JOSEPH PARK POND of Newton, JOHN F. POND of Worcester, and Dr. JAMES OTIS POND of New York City.

Entire accuracy in names and dates in the following pages is not claimed, but I trust the errors found will be few and unimportant. Where the name of the State has been omitted and the context does not forbid such an interpretation, it is to be understood that that of Massachusetts may be supplied.

EDW. DOUBLEDAY HARRIS.

The New Englander who seeks to learn something of his ancestry turns first to Dr. Savage's Genealogical Dictionary. From this source we learn that while DANIEL POND, the forefather of the Norfolk County families, was living in Dedham, one ROBERT was in Milton, one WILLIAM was in Dorchester,—and in Connecticut, which it must be remembered was settled in part by removals from Massachusetts, were living SAMUEL in Windsor and another SAMUEL in Branford. With the Connecticut men we have but little to do. Their connection with the Norfolk County families is not made clear, and the few pages inserted at the end of this book relating to their descendants have been printed more for the aid of any who may in future attempt to collect the records of those branches, than for any peculiar interest they may have to the descendants of the Dedham settler. As it is by no means impossible that future researches of English records may show a relationship between the Dorchester men and Daniel, the information concerning the former, as unfolded by Dr. Savage, is here inserted, somewhat enlarged by scanty notes collected from different sources by the compiler.

JOHN POND, and a brother whose name is not given, sons of one of Governor Winthrop's old neighbors, came to New England in the year 1630, with the Governor. After his arrival here, Governor Winthrop wrote home to his eldest son in Groton, desiring him to tell "old Pond that both his sons are well and remember their duty." Records of Groton, examined at the instance of the writer, give no satisfaction to the patient searcher; the name of Pond does not occur in them. John and his brother were, doubtless, men of humble birth and small means, launched forth from the paternal roof by the old sire, to seek their fortunes in the new world. Of the former we hear nothing more. He may have returned to England, or pushed on to a more congenial climate. But one ROBERT, who it is surmised was the brother, sat down at Dorchester. He died in 1637, his inventory being dated December 27 of that year. His widow, Mary, married Edward Shepard of Cambridge. It is known that Robert and Mary Pond had a daughter Mary, who was eleven years old at the time that her mother joined the church at Cambridge, and who afterwards married John Blackman. There is evidence, too, that the widow carried with her to Cambridge two other children, Jonathan and Sarah, though it seems difficult to reconcile dates and facts with this hypothesis, unless the transcript of the court paper relating to Jonathan's estate, on page 338 of the N. E. Genealogical Register for 1853, errs in the age of Sarah.

There is but little doubt that ROBERT POND of Milton, was also a son of Robert and Mary of Dorchester. He was made freeman in 1642, married Mary Ball, and died between 1660 and 1663. Their children were Mary, Martha, and probably the Sarah who married Desire Clap.

WILLIAM POND of Dorchester, also supposed to have been a son of the first Robert, married Mary, daughter of George Dyer, and had several children born in Dorchester, none of whom, except a daughter Thankful, who married Philip Whithington, can be traced. The name in Dorchester, and of this line, seems to have died out with that generation.

Dr. Savage was strongly impressed with the belief that DANIEL POND of Dedham, the subject of this sketch, was a son of the elder Robert and brother of Robert and William. It was a custom of our ancestors to retain and pass down from father to son the family given names. Our Dedham man had a goodly number of children, and if Savage's supposition is not correct, there is certainly a singular coincidence in the names which he bestowed upon them, for we find a Robert, a William, and a John. Another circumstance favoring the idea of a connection between the Dorchester and the Dedham men is that of Daniel's marriage. It will be remembered that Robert's widow, Mary, married Edward Shepard of Cambridge, and we shall show that Daniel took for his wife, Abigail, the daughter of the same Edward by an earlier marriage.

Thus it will be seen that although no positive evidence in regard to the parentage of Daniel Pond can be adduced, there is a probability that he was the son of Robert Pond of Dorchester, and a descendant of the Groton family.

It is worthy of note, that for many years the descendants of the Dedham settler, with scarcely an exception, lived and died in close proximity to that ancient town. Not until the lapse of a hundred years after his first purchase did his issue, then in the fourth generation, stray as far as to Hubbardston, Petersham, and even to Keene, N. H.; while a very large number of the residents of Wrentham and Franklin, of the present day, can trace back their descent through paternal or maternal lines to the sturdy old husbandman.

If but few of the immense number, whose names are found in the following pages, have arrived at distinction in the literary or political history of the country, with truth can it be said, that fewer still have brought dishonor to their name and race. In the struggle for national independence, they rose almost to a man in defense of their rights, and Revolutionary records bear ample evidence of their alacrity and zeal. Among the first to spring to arms at the receipt of the Lexington alarm, on the morning of the memorable 19th of April, 1775, there were those of the name who did not sheathe the sword, until, long years afterwards, peace had been declared throughout the length and breadth of the land, and the country for which they had sacrificed so much, no longer needed their services.

For the benefit of those not familiar with the geography and history of eastern Massachusetts it may not be out of place to state that Norfolk County, the home of most of the Ponds, had no separate existence as a county until the year 1793, having previously formed a part of Suffolk. Dedham, now the capital, at the time of the settlement of DANIEL POND within its limits, embraced a vast and rather undefined area, most of which has been severed from it at different times to form new townships, which in their turn again have been divided for a similar purpose. Wrentham was the first offshoot as early as 1661, and by this division Dedham lost its southern portion. Wrentham was afterwards divided to form Franklin, and still later again to form Norfolk. Medway, at an early date became a separate town, and in 1872 old Dedham lost another limb by the setting off of the south precinct into the township of Norwood. Hence probate records and conveyances bearing date prior to 1793 must be sought, not in Dedham, but in Boston; and the same apparent confusion exists in a more complicated state in the town records, as, for example, many births and deaths which actually occurred within the limits of what is now Franklin may be recorded in the following pages, and correctly, too, as having occurred in Wrentham, the separation of the two towns not having taken place until after those events.

DANIEL POND AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

1. DANIEL POND, husbandman, the forefather of a long line of descendants, appeared in the town of Dedham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, about the year 1652. The names of his parents and that of his birth-place, no vigilance has discovered. In the volume of town records containing the conveyances of real estate and grants of land, it is written that on the 30th day, 1st mo. (March 30) 1652, he purchased of Nathaniel Fisher two acres of upland, described as being bounded by "the highway" on the N., and by "the swamp" on the S. With this were two acres of swamp land. On the 25th day, 12th month, 1662, (Feb. 12, 1662-3) he bought of Ralph Wheelock, his estate, on which was a dwelling-house and barns, with a piece of swamp land "called the dead swamp amongst the rocks." His marriage to ABIGAIL, daughter of Edward SHEPARD, of Cambridge, occurred probably about the time of his first purchase, but it is not recorded either in Dorchester, or Cambridge where it would have taken place. The birth of his first child, Abigail, is recorded at Dedham, but not her baptism, although her mother was doubtless a member of the church at Cambridge. He was himself received into full communion in the Dedham church, 8, 11, 1653, and a son whose name is not given was baptized there on the 22d of same month. In 1659 his "county and town rate" or tax was 7s. 6d. His special town-rate levied in the last month of the same year was 3s. 4d. He was one of the Selectmen of the town in 1660. The next year his "school-rate" was 11s. 7d. In 1661 the southern portion of Dedham was set off into a separate township called Wrentham, though the act was not confirmed by court until 1673. Daniel Pond immediately became an owner of real estate there, obtaining a grant of Lot No. 15, as early as March 22d, 1662-3. In 1664 he had a further grant of twelve acres "on the mill-creek." At a meeting of the proprietors of the new town, held on January 15th, 1671, he was present and took part in the proceedings. In 1676-7 he had a further grant, lot No. 25. In 1685 he was granted meadow lot No. 37 "in Wigwam meadow," and also lot No. 17, containing eight acres. After his death his heirs had a grant of seven acres at "cold hearth plain." He probably never lived at Wrentham, but his older sons took up the land and settled there. His wife Abigail died at Dedham, July 5th, 1661, and, if the records are correct in the date, he waited only until Sept. 18th of the same year to wed another, ANN EDWARDS, who survived him, and died June 6th, 1732, aged 92 yrs. He was a lieutenant of the militia, and took the freeman's oath in 1690. He died Feb. 4th, 1697-8, at Dedham. His will was proved March 3d, 1697-8, and was as follows* :

(1) 4. JOHN POND, son of Daniel, may have been the oldest of the family and born before his father settled at Dedham. He settled in the Wrentham parish, probably in that portion subsequently set off to form the township of Medway. He was a husbandman, and March 28th, 1698, was allotted a grant of eleven acres of timber land, and seven acres on the brook at "long walk." The records of his marriages, by the destruction of the church books at Wrentham, are lost. The dates of his own and two wives' deaths have not been preserved, neither is there any record of the administration of his estate. He was living in 1734, and Aug. 29, 1727, gave one half of all his Wrentham lands to his son John.

John Pond was thrice married. His first wife, HANNAH, died June 2d, 1691. His second wife, RACHEL, bore him only two children, Hannah and Rachel. His last wife, JUDITH, died April 26, 1708.

(1) 5. EPHRAIM POND, son of Daniel, was doubtless born in Dedham where he was baptized July 6, 1656. He is styled "carpenter," and his name appears early on the Wrentham records, where he resided, an owner of real estate, in 1689. He served on Town Committees in 1694.

He married Jan. 6, 1685-6 DEBORAH, daughter of Edward and Eleony (Lumber) HAWES of Dedham, b. Sept. 1st, 1666 ; after his death she married a Bacon. He died Dec. 22, 1704, intestate, and his widow was appointed in 1710 to administer. The inventory of the estate showed a valuation of £318. In 1714 it was divided between the widow, and children Ephraim, Daniel, Eleony, Samuel, Deborah and Jacob. Nov. 13th, 1737 the widow's portion was divided between Ephraim, Samuel, Jacob, Daniel Thurston, and Eleony the daughter of Eleony Shepard.

The issue of Ephraim and Deborah (Hawes) Pond were :

- + 25. EPHRAIM, b. at Wrentham, Oct. 21, 1686.

(1) 8. DANIEL POND, son of Daniel, b. at Dedham 17. 2. 1663; baptized May 26th, 1663. Nothing is known of him save that by wife TABITHA, he had one daughter, and died before the making of his father's will in 1698, by which his daughter was named an heir. Issue:

- 34. SUSANNA, b. April 23, 1690.

(1) 9. ROBERT POND, son of Daniel, was born at Dedham Aug. 5, 1667, and baptized Aug. 11. He was a house carpenter, and in deeds is called "captain." He became possessed of lands in Wrentham either by division or purchase previous to Jan. 10th, 1692-3 when he petitioned that his land might be surveyed and measured. July 6, 1696, he was granted lot 5 on "mine brook," a stream which after a lapse of nearly two hundred years is known by the same name. By subsequent grants he became the possessor of a very considerable estate in that locality and lived to the ripe age of eighty-three years to enjoy it.

Robert Pond was married three times. His first marriage to JOANNA (LAWRENCE ?) is not recorded; she was the mother of all his children. He was not the Robert who married, Dec. 13, 1717, Hannah Bacon, for his wife Joanna acknowledged a deed April 19, 1726. He married, Jan. 16, 1728-9, ABIGAIL FISHER, and Nov. 17, 1747, his last wife, the widow SARAH SHUTTLEWORTH. He died July 3, 1750. The inventory of his estate exhibits a valuation of £184. His son Baruch was appointed Aug. 22, 1750, the executor of his will, which was as follows :

"In the Name of God Amen. The Twenty third Day of December one Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty Eight in the Twenty second year of his Majestie's Reign, I Robert Pond of Wrentham in the County of Suffolk and Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, House carpenter, being weak in Body but of sound Mind and Memory, praised be almighty God for the same: yet knowing the uncertainty of this present Life and being desirous to settle that outward Estate the Lord hath lent me: Do therefore make and order this my last Will and Testament in Manner and Form following. 36. SARAH, b. Sept. 30, 1692; married Stephen Gay.
37. ROBERT, b. ——; died May 28, 1694.
38. ROBERT, b. May 18, 1695; died young.
39. ROBERT, b. Jan. 14, 1696-7; probably died young, as there appears no further mention of him.

- + 41. ICHABOD, b. May 31, 1699.
- + 42. BARUCH, b. 1702.
43. EUNICE, married June 21, 1727, John Goldsbury.

(1) 11. CALEB POND, son of Daniel, was born at Dedham 13. 12. 1672. As his baptism is not recorded at Dedham, it is possible that it took place at Wrentham, although he passed the brief period of his maturity in Dedham. He was granted four acres of land at a place called “spring-field.”

He married PRISCILLA, daughter of Nathaniel COLBURN, who survived him and was living a widow in 1731, having, in the words of the church record “laid hold on y<sup>e</sup> covenant” and been baptized Aug. 28, 1725. He died Feb. 23, 1705-6, and March following the widow was appointed to administer; thirteen years afterwards she rendered her account of the estate, charging for the keep of her son Joshua for a term of nine months, and of Daniel for a term of five years.

The issue of Caleb and Priscilla Pond were :

- +44. NATHANIEL, b. Jan. 7, 1695-6.
- +45. CALEB, b. Sept. 21, 1697.
- +46. JOSHUA, b. April 12, 1700.
47. DANIEL, b. Dec. 10, 1703; died April 16, 1732, joiner, probably unmarried. Administration was granted to his brother Caleb, May 29, 1732, and the next year the estate was declared insolvent. June 19, 1732, Caleb was appointed to administer on his real estate in Middlesex County, though his mother and brothers Nathaniel and Joshua petitioned the court to be appointed.
48. ABIEL, b. March 9, 1705-6; d. young.

(1) 13. JABEZ POND, youngest son of Daniel, was born at Dedham 6. 1. 1677. He was a husbandman, and after the year 1730 was styled "lieutenant." He had an early grant of four and one-half acres of land at "Strawberry hill" on the highway to Natick, and he became ultimately the possessor of several parcels of land in Dedham and Stoughton, most of which he conveyed in the latter years of his life to his son Eliphalet. He lived at Dedham.

He married at Dedham, Jan. 11, 1698-9, MARY GAY. She died June 11, 1731. He married at Medfield, Nov. 22, 1732, MARY PLYMPTON, who was living in 1750, and was perhaps the widow Mary Pond who, April 24, 1750, married Deacon Joseph Wight. March 28, 1709, he had a grant of forty-nine acres at "long walk" "on account of his father John Pond's right," and Oct. 1, 1716, he had an additional grant of five acres to the southwest "of his own house." In March, 1718, he was granted twelve acres. His wife being a church member, the elder children were baptized in her right at the East Medway church. Upon the organization of the church at Franklin in February, 1737-8, he signed the covenant, making public confession of his faith. It would seem that his zeal got the better of his judgment, for hardly two years afterward he was suspended for "pitching his voice too high in the singing." The difficulty could not by the mediation of committees be amicably adjusted, and after a laudable exercise of patience on the part of the church, the offending member was put without the pale by the solemn act of excommunication. He outlived all prejudice, and was one of the founders of the second church in Medway (west) in 1750. He was a man of remarkable physical strength, and numerous tales are still told of his exploits.

He married Jan. 14, 1718, SARAH RICHARDSON. He died March 24, 1775, aged 85 years, and was buried in the ground at West Medway, where the grave-stone still stands.

No account of the administration of his estate is to be found, but Dec. 5, 1759, he, together with his wife, conveyed the homestead and personal property to their son Ebenezer to enjoy after their decease; and in the will of his son Stephen, mention is made of certain legacies which were due from Ebenezer, out of their father's estate.

The issue of David and Sarah Pond were :

- 65. PHOEBE, b. at W., Oct. 8, 1737.

(4) 22. ISRAEL POND, son of John, was born at Wrentham, March 29, 1702. He may have removed from his native place, for his name disappears from the town records after 1740, nor do county records of Suffolk, Bristol, Middlesex or Worcester give any information of him.

He married at Wrentham, May 19, 1732, DORCAS CLARK.*

6. Elisha, b. Jan. 1, 1770.

(4) 23. JOSEPH POND, son of John, was born at Wrentham, April 18, 1704. He was a weaver and lived at Wrentham. His father conveyed to him May 15, 1725, an estate in W., bounded by David, Samuel, and John Pond, Jr., and again in June, 1734, he conveyed to him all of his Wrentham land. In 1786 Joseph, by a deed of gift, conveyed all of his real estate and personal property to his daughter Judith, singlewoman of Wrentham.

*Wrentham records give the marriage of Josiah Hawes with Dorcas Pond, March 16, 1742-3, possibly the widow of Israel.

†The two grave-stones of Zabiah and Judith stand together in the burying-ground at Franklin City Mills.

The family name of his wife, MARY, does not appear. He died at Wrentham, a member of the north parish, May 2, 1788.

In 1716, he received a lot of eight acres at the "hoop-poles." He passed his days at Wrentham.

He married at Boston, Nov. 1, 1710, MARY COLBURN. He died April 27, 1760, and she died May 25, 1754. His will was made June 4, 1754, appointing his son Jeremiah executor, and was as follows:

(5) 32. JACOB POND, youngest son of Ephraim, was born at Wrentham, Nov. 22, 1702. He settled in that portion of the town which now bears the name of Pondville, and where his descendants in the fifth generation are still living. He was deacon of the first church of Wrentham.

He married at Boston, May 11, 1726, ABIGAIL HEATH. He died March 8, 1764. His widow survived him many years, and died Feb. 20, 1803, in her ninety-ninth year. Their grave-stones may be seen in the burying-ground at Pondville.

The issue of Jacob and Abigail Pond were:

(9) 40. EZRA POND, son of Robert, was probably born at Wrentham, although the event was not entered upon the records. He purchased lands in Wrentham as early as 1721. In 1726 his father conveyed to him all his lands, house, and cattle, although the deed was not acknowledged until 1735. He subsequently purchased several tracts of land in Wrentham and in Medway. In 1761 he executed a deed of gift to his youngest son, Elijah, of one half of all his real estate in Wrentham, provided he survived him. In 1770 he conveyed land to his son James, and the following year he conveyed the house in Wrentham to his son Elijah, reserving a portion of it for the use of his wife. He resided for many years in the portion of Wrentham which was set off under the name of Franklin, and was town clerk for a long period. He was one of the founders of the second church of Medway (West) in 1750. He resided for the last years of his life with his youngest son, Elijah.

Ezra Pond was twice married, first, Nov. 26, 1718, to ABIGAIL FARRINGTON, the mother of all his children, who died April 19, 1759; and second, April 1, 1761, to MARGARET, widow of Eleazer METCALF, of Wrentham. She may have been the daughter of Jonathan Wight, for in 1764 she joined with other heirs in selling estate of "their father," Jonathan Wight, deceased, of Wrentham. She was probably the same "widow Margaret" that died at Franklin, Nov. 22, 1807.

The death of Ezra Pond is not recorded, but it took place after the year 1782. His will was dated Feb. 25, 1779 and names his wife, and children Ezra, Oliver, James, Reuben, Aaron, Moses, Elijah, Abigail, Joanna, Robert and Hezekiah. It was not admitted, as March 28, 1788, John Metcalf, of Bellingham, testified in court that he drew the will, Pond then being non compos. The widow and son Aaron were appointed to administer, Aug. 5, 1788.

The issue of Ezra and Abigail Pond were:

- + 101. ROBERT, b. Feb. 2, 1719-20.
- + 102. EZRA, b. March 26, 1721.

- + 111. ELIJAH, b. Feb. 3, 1738-9*; baptized April 18, 1742.

(9) 41. ICHABOD POND, son of Robert, was born at Wrentham, May 31, 1699. In January, 1722, his father conveyed to him his new house and lands, together with all the cattle, farming implements and personal property. The estate was on "mine brook," and here he doubtless passed his days. In 1763 he executed a deed of gift to his son Benjamin of one half of all the real estate, to be his at his death, and in 1776 he conveyed other real estate to his son Benjamin.

He was three times married; Nov. 30, 1721, to MILCAH FARRINGTON, the mother of all his children; May 25, 1747, to DEBORAH THURSTON; and Sept. 28, 1762, to MEHITBALE, widow of John ALDIS. She died Feb. 26, 1785, in her 82d year.

Ichabod Pond died at Franklin, May 2, 1785, intestate. Administration was granted to his son Elisha, Aug. 2, 1785.

The issue of Ichabod and Milcah Pond, all born at Wrentham, were:

- 112. MERCY, b. June 11, 1723; admitted to full communion in the Franklin church, June 21, 1741.

(9) 42. BARUCH POND, son of Robert, was born at Wrentham, in 1702. In 1725 his father conveyed to him one half of his estates in Wrentham, and to this he materially added by subsequent purchases. He became a man of considerable prominence in Wrentham and Franklin, was styled in deeds "gentleman" as early as 1743, was lieutenant of the militia in 1740, and captain in 1750. He, with his wife, associated with the Franklin church at the time of, or soon after its organization in 1738, and both died in membership.

He married, Dec. 4, 1728, ABIGAIL SLOCUM. He died March 8, 1765, "in his 63d year," and she died Aug. 30, 1778, in her 71st year; their epitaphs are in the Franklin grave-yard. His will was dated March 4, 1765. It divides the property between the widow and surviving children, giving the negro man Cæsar, to his wife. The sons were appointed executors, March 29, 1765.

The issue of Baruch and Abigail, all born at Wrentham, were :

- + 124. TIMOTHY, b. Sept. 15, 1729; baptized May 3, 1741.

- + 132. ASA, baptized Feb. 1, 1747.

In Jan. 1720, Nathaniel Colburn, of Dedham, conveyed to his grandsons, Nathaniel and Caleb Pond, about eighty acres of land in Newton, being a part of and adjoining an island then and now known as Cow Island, they signing an agreement at the same time by which he was allowed a life interest in the estate. In August, 1731, Nathaniel Colburn being dead, a division of this property was made. Upon the death of the widow of Nathaniel Pond, his portion, or all that remained of it, was divided between her heirs, and so passed out of the family. There are frequent sales of real estate by Nathaniel Pond upon record, but no purchases. He was a husbandman, and lived and died in Dedham.

He married at Boston, Jan. 25, 1720, SARAH HASTINGS. His death is not recorded. His will was dated April 20, 1767, by which his wife was made sole heir, and was appointed executor by court, May 29, of the same year. The inventory shows only £113. His brothers Caleb and Joshua petitioned that the will be set aside, he having left no issue, and that the estate be divided among his kindred, but it was not allowed. His widow, Sarah, died about 1776, and in February of that year Thomas Hastings was made her administrator and the property, £133 14s. 6d., was divided in April following, between Thomas Hastings, the heirs of Mary Dike, and the children of Josiah and David Hastings.*

(11) 45. CALEB POND, second son of Caleb, was born at Dedham, Sept. 21, 1697. He was a weaver, and lived some time in Dedham, then removed to that portion of West Roxbury which adjoins Dedham. He became, with his brothers, an owner in the Cow Island property devised to them by their maternal grandfather, Nathaniel Colburn. In 1722 he quit-claimed to his elder brother his share in their father's estate. In 1733 he sold his share in his deceased brother Daniel's estate. In the old church book of the first parish of Dedham may be read this remarkable entry: "May 3, 1730, Baptized y<sup>e</sup> Children of Caleb Pond upon y<sup>r</sup> Mothers Right after her Decease, y<sup>e</sup> Father Refusing to offer his Children they were Presented by those y<sup>t</sup> had y<sup>e</sup> care of y<sup>m</sup> The Childrens Names were Caleb and Samuel, sons, and Elizabeth a daughter."

Caleb Pond married at Dorchester, July 27, 1721, ELIZABETH LYON. She was received into the church at Dedham, June 23, 1728, and died about 1730. He married, Oct. 13, 1731, LYDIA, daughter of George ADAMS, of Cambridge. She was born at Lexington, July 9, 1706.

Caleb Pond probably died early in 1771. May 3, of that year, John Pond, his son, was appointed to administer on the estate, and in the account, under date of April 1771, are the funeral charges of "Caleb and his wife." The estate was declared insolvent.

The issue of Caleb Pond were :

133. CALEB, b. June 21, 1722; baptized May 3, 1730. Nothing is known of him later than 1747, when he was appointed his brother's administrator. One Caleb was Private in Capt. Wm. Tucker's company, Col. Jacob Gerish, from July to Nov. 1778, of Mass., in service in R. I.; residence not given on the muster-roll, but probably the same one.
134. ELIZABETH, b. March 6, 1728-9; baptized May 3, 1730; died Oct. 11, 1733.

*One Nathaniel Pond married, May, 1756, Sarah White, both of Roxbury. The name does not occur again, and is not found in county records. He may have been a son of Nathaniel and Sarah, and died before his father.

135. SAMUEL, b. June 29, 1726; baptized May 3, 1730; he was a "soldier in Capt. Morris' company of foot, raised for the reduction of Canada." His brother Caleb was appointed to administer on his estate, Feb. 2, 1747.

138. ZACCHEUS.* Administration was granted to his brother John Pond, Feb. 19, 1773, and the account was presented Feb. 24, £4 14s. No mention of wife or issue.

139. BULAH, owned the covenant and was baptized at second church of Roxbury (West), May 21, 1769; married at Roxbury, June 30, 1776, Timothy Ellis.

(11) 46. JOSHUA POND, son of Caleb, was born at Dedham, April 12, 1700. He is styled "husbandman," and lived in Dedham or West Roxbury, probably near the division line. In 1709 he bought of Jonathan Metcalf a meadow containing twenty acres, in Newton, near Cow Island. In 1722 he gave to his brother Nathaniel a quit-claim to their father's estate. In April, 1730 his mother conveyed to him certain real estate in Dedham.

The marriage of Joshua Pond is not recorded. His wife, DOROTHY, was admitted to the church at Dedham, Feb. 28, 1724-5. He died early in 1775, and March 31, of that year, his widow and son Jonas were appointed to administer on the estate. The inventory, made April 11, names land on Cow Island, and house and land in Dedham, the total valuation of real estate and personal being £531 19s. 2d. The estate was settled in 1776 by dividing between the widow, sons, and one daughter. In March 1787 the widow's share (she having deceased before July 6, 1786) was divided between the three children.

The issue of Joshua and Dorothy Pond were:

142. MIRIAM, b. at Roxbury, Sept. 17, 1725; bapt. Nov. 21, 1725; married Brackett.

(13) 50. ELIPHALET POND, son of Jabez, was born at Dedham, May 17, 1704. He inherited a very considerable land estate from his father, and for many years took an active interest in the purchase and sale of lands in Dedham and neighboring towns. He seems to have been associated as partner with John Metcalf, of Dedham, in many real estate transactions. He was usually styled "gentleman" in the

*The births of the younger children are not recorded. They probably occurred in Roxbury. Nor is it certain that the list is complete. Bulah and John owned the covenant and received adult baptism in the second church; and upon the same records occurs this entry, "Jnne 12, 1757, Bapt. Lydia Gibbons and her three sisters, Martha, Sarah, and Abigail Pond, who own the covenant." Who these four could have been save the daughters of Caleb and Lydia, it is difficult to determine.

deeds, and later, "esquire." He filled several important offices, and served on numerous committees of the town government. He was commissioned a Justice of the Peace, Jan. 4, 1748-9, and Feb. 4, 1762, the honor was repeated. He was received into the Dedham church with his wife Elizabeth, Dec. 13, 1741.

He married Sept. 28, 1727, ELIZABETH ELLIS, of Dedham.

Eliphalet Pond died Jan. 19, 1795. His wife died Oct. 25, 1789, in her 81st year. Their grave-stones are in the old burying-ground near the Dedham Court House. There is no record of any administration on the estate.

The issue of Eliphalet and Elizabeth Pond, all born at Dedham, were:

144. MARY, b. Dec. 4, 1728; baptized Dec. 8, 1728; died March 27, 1730-1.
145. HEPSIBATH, b. March 3, 1730; baptized March 7, 1730-1; married, June 28, 1759, Isaac Colburn.

153. SARAH, b. Oct. 29, 1752; baptized Oct. 29, 1752; married, Feb. 20, 1773, Gershom Flagg, of Lancaster.

(15) 56. JOHN POND, oldest son of John, was born at Wrentham, Feb. 20, 1722-3. He was admitted to full communion in the East Medway church, July 20, 1741. Nine years later, in 1750, he was a founder of the second church of Medway, in the West village, of which he was elected a ruling elder June 30, 1763. He was a lieutenant in the militia as early as 1763, but there is no evidence that he participated in the Revolutionary struggle of 1775. March 6, 1769, he conveyed to his son Malchiah one hundred acres of land in Wrentham on Mine Brook and the Bellingham line, bounded in part by the land of Ichabod Pond.

He married, Nov. 21, 1745, DINAH METCALF, of Wrentham. He died April 10, 1777, and was buried at Medway (west village). April 23, 1777, an agreement was made between the heirs to a division of his estate. His wife was admitted to the Medway church March 17, 1754, and was dismissed to the church at Franklin June 30, 1791. She married, Dec. 17, 1788, Lieut. Hezekiah Fisher.

The issue of John and Dinah Pond, all born at Wrentham, were :

- + 154. MALCHIAH, b. Sept. 30, 1746 ; baptized Oct. 12, 1746.
- 155. DINAH, b. March 4, 1747-8 ; baptized April 3, 1748 ; married, Sept. 1, 1768, Simon Fisher, of Medway.
- 156. ZEBIAH, b. Feb. 11, 1749-50 ; baptized March 11, 1750 ; married Richard Fisk, of Framingham, and had (Haven Gen. p.44) Luther, Martin, Patty, Daniel, Nancy, Richard, Mary, and Josiah.
- 157. JOHN, b. Aug. 20, 1752 ; baptized Oct. 20, 1752 ; died at Fort George, Oct. 26, 1776 ; he was a corporal in a company of minute men that marched from Wrentham, April 19, 1775, under Capt. John Boyd, of Col. Greaton's regiment, at the Lexington alarm. He was unmarried. His grave-stone is at West Medway.
- 158. ELIHU, b. April 25, 1756 ; bapt. June 6, 1756 ; d. May 14, 1763.

(15) 57. DANIEL POND, second son of John, was born at Wrentham, May 13, 1724. He graduated at Harvard College in the class of 1745, studied for the ministry, and was ordained over the church in Templeton (then Narragansett Township No. 6) Dec. 10, 1755.

There is evidence however that he ministered to the people there much earlier, for he was invited to the pastorate Oct. 2, 1754, accepted the call in a letter which was read at a meeting Dec. 11, 1754, and on the 8th January following signed his name with others to the church covenant. Of his professional life in Templeton we know but very little. It was short and terminated in August 1759, an unhappy difference, the nature of which does not appear on the records, having arisen between the pastor and his flock resulting in an ecclesiastical council which gave its judgment in favor of his dismissal. He soon after removed to West Medway where he resided for many years, occupying himself in preparing youths for admission to college. He had been received into the East Medway church Jan. 17, 1750, but after his return was received into membership in the church at West Medway June 1764, bearing a letter of recommendation from the church at Templeton. In the centennial address preached by the Rev. Edwin G. Adams before the parish in Templeton, Dec. 9, 1855, we find the following additional information. Mr. Pond "seems to have enjoyed confidence and respect from the citizens" of Medway. "He was very strongly opposed to what were called the Hopkinsian views in theology ; and, upon the settlement of a minister in West Medway who advocated those views, he withdrew from that church to another (the first church), and, by the action he took, became the leader in a dissension in that town, which lasted many years."

In 1757 he purchased a tract of land in Templeton apparently in addition to a grant of a house lot, which he held until 1761 when he sold a portion to John How, and more of it in 1764 to John Whitcomb. Aug. 29, 1788, he conveyed to Miranda Merrifield, spinster, one half of an estate of 72 acres in the west precinct of Medway, bordering on Charles River, and divided by the road between Boston and Mendon; by a similar deed of the same date he conveyed the other half to his son-in-law, Abner Merrifield. The two joined in its sale in 1791 to one Hixon, describing it as "our home farm where we now dwell." Olive, the wife of Abner, released her right of dower. At this time Daniel Pond probably removed from Medway with his son-in-law, for nothing further appears concerning him in either town, county or church records. The date and place of his death I have not ascertained. He is said to have gone to Otter Creek and there died.

He married Aug. 4, 1763, LOIS METCALF, of Wrentham. She died at Medway, March 17, 1787.

The issue of Daniel and Lois Pond were:

159. JABEZ, b. at Medway, Aug. 16, 1765; died same day.
160. MIRANDA, b. at Medway, July 1, 1767; baptized Aug. 3, 1767; married, May 8, 1788, Abner Merrifield, of Newfane. She died before 1791, and he married a second wife, Olive.

(15) 58. BENJAMIN POND, youngest son of John, was born at Wrentham, June 15, 1726. He was a husbandman, and lived in the portion of Wrentham, which was set off and called Franklin. The deed by which he acquired his estate does not appear; he may have inherited it from his father. April 26, 1784, he and his son Benjamin conveyed 36 acres of land adjoining the residence of the father to one Whiting. He served for a time in the Revolutionary War, and was a minute man in Capt. John Boyd's company which marched on the 19th of April, 1775, at the Lexington alarm.

Benjamin Pond married, Dec. 22, 1748, MARY PARK, of Hopkinton. She was born Aug. 3, 1727, and died March 17, 1807. He died Feb. 22, 1787. Their grave-stones are together in the Franklin ground. His will was dated June 2, 1784, and names the wife and children, Barzillai, Elihu, Kezia, Rachel, and Benjamin.

The issue of Benjamin and Mary Pond, all recorded at Wrentham, were:

161. ELIZABETH, b. Sept. 23, 1749; baptized Sept. 24, 1749; died Feb. 5, 1757.

- +165. BENJAMIN, b. Oct. 1, 1757; baptized Nov. 20, 1757.
- +166. BARZILLAI, b. July 27, 1759.

168. RACHEL, b. Oct. 16, 1765; married, April 13, 1786, Amos Ware, and died Aug. 8, 1818. He died May 3, 1833.

(17) 60. DAVID POND, eldest son of David, was born at Wrentham, Jan. 31, 1719-20. He removed immediately after his marriage to the province of Upper Ashuelot in the State of New Hampshire and there took up certain lands. His stay was short for in 1745 he, then of Mendon, bought of Samuel Thayer twenty acres in that place. The next year he bought of Eleazer Daniels thirty acres in Mendon and sold the Ashuelot land. From this time to 1755 he made many transfers of real estate in Mendon, Uxbridge and Douglas. In 1756 he was reported "out of the province," numerous executions were issued against him, and different parcels of land was sold to meet them. In 1761 he was reported as "dead or in parts unknown," and in 1767, July 2, "the widow" was married to John Thayer, Jr. His fate is unknown.

He married, Dec. 19, 1740, MERCY DANIELS, of Mendon, the office being performed by the Baptist clergyman of Bellingham.

The issue of David and Mercy Pond were :

(17) 61. STEPHEN POND, second son of Daniel, was baptized at East Medway, July 2, 1727, (the birth is not recorded, probably 1722-3.) He was a saddler, and probably early removed from his native town. He purchased, April 10, 1759, of Joseph Newall, of Attleboro', for £160, the Newall farm of seventy acres with "the house thereon in which the said Pond" then lived, "near the first meeting-house" in Attleboro, Oct. 5, of that year, his wife Hannah joined in conveying the estate to Samuel Robinson for £200, and seven days later he bought of Brian Hall, of Norton, one hundred and fourteen acres with the house, for £236. Nov. 12, 1765, he bought forty acres adjoining this, and here probably died. In Feb. 1771, in connection with George Wheaton, they having been appointed by the inhabitants of the parish at a legal meeting in March 1770, the said parish then being known by the name of "Norton north precinct," conveyed a portion of the ministerial lands. He was a lieutenant of militia in 1773.

He married at Norton, June 27, 1750, HANNAH FAIRBANKS. No births are recorded on the Norton books, but the Mansfield records show the names of three of his children. He had a second wife, MARY, who survived him, and might have been the Mary Pond who was published, at Mansfield, January 29, 1780, to Noah Wiswell, of Norton. He died at Mansfield in the spring of 1776.

His will was dated March 7, and proved April 10, 1776. By it he gave to his wife Mary £100, the use of the south-west room in the house with chamber above, privilege in the cellar, well, and "oven in the kitchen room," also the use of a horse "to ride to meeting on the Sabbath," all "as long as she is my widow and no longer." To his son Joshua he gave the negro "Pomp," and the "cedar swamp lot in the Witch Pond Cedar Swamp." To his son Benjamin he gave the legacies due from his brother Ebenezer Pond, of Wrentham, which the latter was to pay as his share in the estate of their father David Pond, late of Wrentham, deceased. To his sons Stephen and Gideon he gave the residue, including the homestead and farm.

The issue of Stephen Pond, so far as known, were :

(17) 63. EBENEZER POND, third son of David, was born at Wrentham, July 4, 1728, and baptized at East Medway, Aug. 4, following. He resided in the second parish (Franklin).

He commanded a company which marched, Dec. 8, 1776, from Wrentham to Providence and Warwick for twenty-three days' service; was first lieutenant in the Wrentham company of the 4th Regiment, Sept. 1777; and in a company commanded by Capt. Raymond de Guiscard for five months service in Rhode Island from July 20, 1781.

He married a wife, FREELOVE, who bore him ten children, and was living in 1784. She was admitted to the Franklin church, Dec. 30, 1761. He is said to have married a second wife at Providence who died soon after, and he removed from Franklin to reside with his daughter Jane in the State of New York. After changing his residence often, he finally settled at Oswego about 1810, where he remained until his death in March 1821.

He inherited his father's homestead in the west precinct by a deed dated Dec. 5, 1759, increasing the farm by a purchase of adjoining land in 1761 from Ezra Pond. He disposed of seventy acres of the real estate in 1784.

He married, Feb. 19, 1767, MARY NEWLAND, and died Nov. 21, 1773.

She married, April 23, 1778, Joseph Day.

His widow was appointed to administer on the estate, Feb. 20, 1778, and presented an inventory, March 19, 1778, with a valuation of £216.

The issue of Joseph and Mary Pond were:

187. ELIAS, b. Oct. 12, 1767; of whom nothing more is known.

(25) 75. EPHRAIM POND, son of Ephraim, was born at Wrentham, March 13, 1712-13. He probably lived upon the homestead with his father, who long outlived him, as no record appears of any real estate purchase by him.

He married, Sept. 22, 1736, MICHAL MANN, who took for her second husband, Nov. 16, 1749, Ephraim Whiting, of Wrentham.

Ephraim Pond, Jr., died, as the record says, "very suddenly," Feb. 11, 1746-7, intestate, and his widow was appointed to administer, Aug. 25, 1747. Wm. Mann, Ephraim Pond, Sr., and Preserved Hall were the appraisers. The estate was divided, May 15, 1761, between the widow, sons Oliver and Increase, and daughters Keturah, Jerusha and Mary.

The issue of Ephraim and Michal Pond, born at Wrentham, were:

*I have sought in vain for proof positive of the parentage of Joseph Pond, 3d. There seems to be but little doubt that he was the son of Joseph (23) and Mary.

192. KETURAH, b. Dec. 20, 1738; mar. Oct. 2, 1755, Timothy Fisher.
 193. JERUSHA, b. Nov. 12, 1740; said to have married a Hayden.
 + 194. INCREASE, b. Nov. 15, 1742.
 195. MARY, b. Sept. 8, 1744.
 196. EPHRAIM, b. Sept. 2, 1746; died Jan. 22, 1746-7.

(25) 82. JEREMIAH POND, youngest son of Ephraim, was born at Wrentham, Dec. 23, 1729. He inherited his father's estate at Wrentham. In 1764 he bought of Dr. John Fales twenty-five acres there. In 1772 he bought of one Blake a house and five acres of land.

He was a private in Capt. Lemuel Kollock's company, Col. John Smith, which marched from Wrentham, April 19, 1775; in Capt. Samuel Fisher's company which marched, Dec. 8, 1776, to Warwick, under Col. Ephraim Wheelock; was drafted for two months service, and marched to Rhode Island, May 3, 1777, with Capt. Samuel Fisher; and again, under the same captain, in the 4th Regiment, commanded by Col. Seth Bullard, for the defense of R. I., July 1780.

He married, Jan. 3, 1754, MARY HEALEY, who outlived him and died a widow, Sept. 28, 1813, in her 85th year.

He died Dec. 10, 1806. Feb. 3, 1807, Timothy Fisher was appointed to administer, and October 6, following, the estate was declared insolvent. Through misfortune or ill management the handsome estate inherited from his ancestor was lost, and during the few years that remained to the widow she was provided for by the charity of the town. Their grave-stones are in the Wrentham cemetery.

No issue were born to Jeremiah and Mary Pond.

(28) 87. SAMUEL POND, eldest son of Samuel and Mary, was born at Wrentham, June 22, 1729. He was baptized at the first church in Medway (now East), Aug. 10, of the same year. He was one of the founders of the second church of Medway, in 1750.

He married, Jan. 10, 1753, HANNAH JOHNSON, of Uxbridge. He died at Franklin, April 24, 1806, and she died at F., Aug. 5, 1816.

His son Samuel was appointed administrator, May 6, 1806, and the inventory shows a real estate of $2725, and personal of $392. In 1807 the property was divided to the widow and sons Samuel and William, with the consent of the other heirs, Daniel, Paul, Job Plimpton, Benajah, Lewis and Oliver. The widow's will was presented Oct. 17, 1816, bearing date June 9, 1811, and naming the heirs of daughter Hannah Parker, of daughter Elizabeth Pond, son Paul, grandson Paul-D., grand-daughter Abigail, and the heirs of daughter Jemima.

The issue of Samuel and Hannah Pond, all born at Wrentham, were :

He was sergeant in Capt. Elijah Pond's company of minute men that marched to Dorchester Heights at the Concord alarm, April 19, 1775. He was a husbandman and lived in the west part of Wrentham (Franklin).

He married at Medway, Feb. 14, 1763, SARAH CUTLER. He died Oct. 27, 1776, and his widow, after surviving him forty years, died March 23, 1816, in her 74th year. (32) 92. DANIEL POND, eldest son of Jacob, was born at Wrentham (Pondville), Feb. 9, 1726-7. It seems probable that he was the Revolutionary soldier of that name; if so, he was in the company of minute men that marched at the Lexington alarm, served eight months in the same year under Capt. John Boyd, and again in 1778 for thirty days in Rhode Island. Suffolk Co. deeds notice three transfers of real estate by him, one in 1764, another in 1766, and the last in 1773 to his son-in-law Blake. There is no record of any administration on his estate.

He married, May 21, 1751, SARAH THURSTON, who died Oct. 22, 1776, in her 47th year. She lies buried in the grave-yard at Pondville. He married a second wife, Oct. 14, 1779, EDE WARE, who died Sept. 28, 1826, aged 86. He died Nov. 30, 1804, and, with his last wife, rests in the cemetery at North Wrentham.

(40) 101. ROBERT POND, oldest son of Ezra, was born at Wrentham, Feb. 2, 1720 ; he received adult baptism at the church in Franklin, July 6, 1760. April 11, 1743, his grandfather, Robert Pond, conveyed to him an estate in Franklin bounded by land of Baruch and Ichabod Pond. He made several purchases and sales of real estate, now not readily identified. He is said to have purchased a farm with house and barns in the north-east part of Franklin after his marriage, which remained in the family for many years. The estate is now occupied by Mr. Jefferson Daniels, and the original house is yet standing. One Robert Pond served with great zeal in the Revolution, either this man or his son, but in the absence of any proof to the contrary, it would seem most likely that the honor belongs to the younger man.

He was twice married, first, Jan. 14, 1745-6, to RACHEL ADAMS. She died Aug. 24, 1758, and he hastened to take his second wife, REBECCA. Her maiden name does not appear. She died March 8, 1805, in her 82d year, as says her epitaph in the Franklin City Mills cemetery. The date of Robert Pond's death is not on record, nor is his grave-stone to be found. His will, dated Jan. 1, 1795, was presented Nov. 3, 1801, and names his wife, and only son Robert, Abigail Hall, Rebecca Darling, Eunice Richardson, and the children of his daughter Ellis.

The issue of Robert Pond, all born at Wrentham, were :

- 235. SARAH, b. March 31, 1747 ; baptized July 6, 1760 ; married John Ellis, Sept. 25, 1765.

He resided in the west parish (Franklin) until 1771 when he sold his farm there to Jesse Ware and removed to the new town of Hubbardston in Worcester county, where he purchased in the same year a farm of fifty acres of Isaac Morse. He was one of the selectmen in 1774, 1780, 1781 and 1787, and served on many important committees during the Revolutionary war. As late as 1802 he bore the title of "Ensign."

He married, at Wrentham, March 13, 1749-50, SARAH MORSE. She died March 19, 1772, in her 42d year. He married a second wife, about July 1774, MERCY BAKER, of Bellingham, who died April 1817. The records of baptisms of the older children do not appear. One Sarah Pond joined the church at Franklin, June 14, 1761, and the three children of Ezra Pond by his wife Sarah, born after that date, were baptized there. The Hubbardston records give no births of children to Ezra by his wife Mercy, but it is certain that there were at least two. He died at Hubbardston, Dec. 2, 1802. An inventory was presented in court, Jan. 31, 1804, naming a farm valued at $1600. September 3, 1804, the widow's dower was set off, the allowance signed by Joseph and Levi Pond, Azubah and Oliver Brown, and Elisha Woodward as agent for Sarah Phillips and Tryphena Newton.

(40) 104. OLIVER POND, third son of Ezra, was born at Wrentham, March 22, 1724-5. He sold an estate in Wrentham to David Daniels, Nov. 20, 1749, and soon removed across the line into Bellingham, where he lived for several years, plying his vocation of shoemaker, purchasing and selling several parcels of real estate meanwhile. In 1766 he bought of his brother Ezra, a farm of forty acres with house and outbuildings, situated on the road between Bellingham and Franklin, near Mine Brook, one and a half miles from the meeting house of the latter place. While living here he erected the house nearly opposite, and in this last home his younger children were born; it still stands and is now occupied by his grandson. In 1790 he sold to David Daniels "the greater part of his farm," increased by various purchases to the size of seventy-eight acres. It is now known as the Rockwood estate. During the latter years of his life he was called in deeds a "miller."

He married, March 23, 1752, ANNE, daughter of Samuel METCALF. In the same year they released her share in her father's estate, he having recently deceased. She long survived her husband and died at Franklin, July 31, 1817, in her eighty-sixth year. He died December 14, 1800, and both were buried in the Franklin grave-yard.

Oliver Pond's will (not dated) was presented for probate June 2, 1801; it names wife Anna, sons Solomon-P., Oliver, Goldsbury, and Samuel-M., and daughters Judith, Chloe, Susanna, Edna and Anna. His widow's will was dated Sept. 17, 1811, and presented September 2, 1817, and names all of the children.

The issue of Oliver and Anne Pond were:

+263. SAMUEL-METCALF, b. at Franklin, Nov. 16, 1777.

(40) 105. REUBEN POND, fourth son of Ezra, was born at Wrentham, Jan. 16, 1726-7, and was baptized at the West Medway church, April 18, 1742. He was a husbandman, and lived at Wrentham. His real estate was probably inherited in part, but he made many transfers of land in Wrentham between 1760 and 1790, when with his son Pallu, he sold his farm of one hundred and ten acres to one Farrington. No administration papers appear on record.

He married June 4, 1752, MARGARET THURSTON. The date of her death is not recorded. He married, Nov. 30, 1780, SARAH SCOTT, who died at Wrentham, Dec. 26, 1819. He died at Wrentham at the good old age of 91 years, Feb. 3, 1818.

(40) 106. JAMES POND, fifth son of Ezra, was born at Wrentham, July 4, 1729, and was baptized at the West Medway church, April 18, 1742. But little is known of him. His father in 1770 conveyed an estate in Wrentham to him, although he is said to have resided at Medway. Nothing appears on the record concerning his marriage, but by his will we learn that his wife's name was MARY.

He was drowned in Charles River, in Medway, in 1789, leaving no issue.

His will was dated August 12, 1778, and names wife Mary, and his nephew, Robert Pond. It was presented for probate, August 4, 1789.

(40) 108. HEZEKIAH POND, sixth son of Ezra, was born at Wrentham, March 17, 1733, and was baptized at the West Medway church, April 18, 1742. It would seem that he resided in Franklin, perhaps on a portion of his father's estate, although the absence from the records of his marriage and first child's birth makes it probable that he did not settle there until after the latter event.

His wife's name was Lois.

He died at Franklin, Dec. 8, 1822. On the fifth of November preceding, his wife, and children Rhoda, Priscilla, Margaret and Abigail with Polly Fisher (who may have been a daughter), and Joseph Bacon petitioned court to appoint a guardian for him, he being non compos; and Elihu Pond, of Franklin, was appointed. January 7, 1823, Seth Dean and the widow presented his will, dated Sept. 10, 1814. It was disputed and set aside, and Elihu Pond appointed to administer on the estate. The inventory names his homestead in Franklin, worth $1344. May 20, 1823, an agent was appointed for children Benajah, Rhoda and Eunice, they being "out of the Commonwealth." The administrator made complaint to the court, Aug. 5, 1823, that certain of the heirs had withheld portions of the estate. The next year it was declared insolvent.

The issue, so far as known, of Hezekiah and Lois Pond, all but the first son born in Wrentham, were:

(40) 109. AARON POND, seventh son of Ezra, was born at Wrentham, July 18, 1735, and was baptized April 18, 1742. He early removed to Holliston, where for many years he carried on the business of saddle making. He bought, May 29, 1762, seventy-two acres with house in Holliston of Jonathan Jones.

He married, Nov. 2, 1759, ELIZABETH JONES, of Holliston. She died April 27, 1790. He married April 17, 1791, widow RUTH FRENCH, who died February 27, 1793, aged 43 years. He married October 10, 1793, widow ELIZABETH BRIDGES.

He sold in September, 1788, an estate in Medway, called "the Pond lot," of thirty-five acres, to the conveyance of which his daughter Matilda was a witness. After this date nothing appears concerning him in either town or county records. He is said to have died at Medway.

The same year he bought an estate in Grafton of one Leland, and was a resident of that town for several years. He afterwards removed to Torrington, Conn.

His father took for his second wife, Margaret, the widow of Eleazer Metcalf, and a few days after, April 24, 1761, Elijah Pond married MARGARET, the daughter of the same Eleazer METCALF. The date of her death does not appear on record. December 18, 1777, he married at Wrentham, MEHITABLE, daughter of Dr. Silas PRATT. He graduated at Harvard College in the class of 1749, but does not appear to have practised any profession.

He was a lieutenant in Capt. Lemuel Kollock's company, Col. John Smith, which marched from Wrentham at the Concord alarm, April 19, 1775; and served as private under Capt. Samuel Fisher, and Col. Ephraim Wheelock, marching to Warwick, R. I., Dec. 8, 1776.

In 1760 he bought an estate of Ebenezer Lawrence adjoining that of his father. In 1774 he sold to Nathaniel Emmons, the homestead of his deceased father, Baruch Pond, lying "a little west of the meeting house in the west precinct" (Franklin), bounded west on the road to the burying-ground, containing one hundred and forty acres. In 1774 he purchased of Sarah Scott one hundred and fifty acres in Wrentham.

He married, June 27, 1754, ELIZABETH BULLARD, of Dedham, who outlived him, and died at Wrentham, Jan 27, 1816.

He died "suddenly" at Wrentham, Nov. 10, 1804.

No will of his was presented for probate. Her will was dated September 3, 1806, and names daughter Catherine Stanley and her child Charlotte, daughter Irene Starkey, sons Jabez, Abner and William. (42) 132. ASA POND, youngest son of Baruch, was born at Wrentham, where he was baptized Feb. 1, 1747.

His military career was distinguished, and after the close of the war, he bore the title of captain until his death. He marched as first lieutenant, April 19, 1775, in Capt. Elijah Pond's company; April 30, 1775, he was sergeant in the first Wrentham company under Capt. Thomas Bacon; was private under Capt. Ebenezer Pond, Major Metcalf, and marched to Providence and Warwick, R. I., Dec. 8, 1776, for twenty-three days' service; was lieutenant under Capt. John Boyd, Col. Daggett, and served in Rhode Island from August 24 to September 3, 1777; again as lieutenant under Capt. Asa Fairbanks, Col. Benjamin Hawes, in Rhode Island, from September 30 to October 31, 1777; again as lieutenant under Capt. John Metcalf, Major Seth Bullard's fourth regiment, which marched to Rhode Island, July, 1780, for two weeks' service.

He bought an estate in Franklin in 1783, of Perez Cushing, and in 1785, of the same man, a farm of one hundred and fifty acres on Mine Brook, on the road from Wrentham to Bellingham. In 1792 he sold his estate in Franklin of two hundred acres, with farm buildings thereon, to Levi Fisher, and removed across the line into Bellingham. David Jones of that town afterwards certified "that Capt. Asa Pond and Judith his wife, and children Asa, Perez, Judith, Lucretia, and Lois Pond (his sister), singlewoman, all came from the town of Franklin to live in my house in Bellingham, April 15, 1783." In 1790 he made two purchases of real estate in Petersham, Worcester county, of Samuel Willard, one of one hundred and ten acres, the other of two hundred and ten acres; and in 1797 he bought another parcel of Aaron Brooks in the same place. In 1794 he bought of Joshua Willard a pew in the meeting-house there, and probably settled in Petersham about that date.

He married, Jan. 29, 1777, JUDITH, the daughter of Oliver POND, (104); she died at Petersham, May 28, 1815; he died at Petersham, October 29, 1810.

(45) 136. SETH POND, third son of Caleb, was born at Dedham, Aug. 4, 1732. He is said to have studied medicine and surgery with his maternal grandfather, Dr. George Adams, of Waltham. Where he lived until his settlement at that place as physician does not appear, nor is it known to the writer where or whom he married, where he and his family were buried, or what became of his widow and issue. He first bought an estate of about three acres in Waltham, April 7, 1764, of Thomas Hammond, when he was thirty-two years of age. In 1772 he bought of Jonas Dix, an estate in Newton, probably near the Waltham line, on the south side of Charles River, and in 1775 sold his home in Waltham to David Townsend. He probably removed to Newton, although the children were baptized at the Waltham church. Their births are not recorded.

Dr. Seth Pond died April 16, 1776. His will was dated April 13, 1776, and mentions his wife FRANCES, who would soon be in child-bed, and children, not named. His brother John Pond was appointed in place of the executor, and afterwards sold the whole or a portion of the real estate.

He served as private in Capt. Jeremiah Wiswell's company which marched from Newton at the Concord alarm, April 19, 1775; and served for five days in December, 1776, at Boston, under Lt. Joseph Craft. In 1777 he administered on the estate of his grandfather Adams, and probably soon afterwards removed from Roxbury to Paris, Me., where he passed the remainder of his life.

He married, by the town records, Nov. 30, 1763, ESTHER WHITE, (but by church records, Dec. 1, 1763, SARAH WHITE). After his removal from Massachusetts, he had a second wife, ANN HALL, and still a third, MARY HARMON.

In 1770 he bought one acre of land with a house at Roxbury, of Enoch Allen. In 1771 he bought an estate in Dedham, of Jonas Lewis, adjoining that of Joshua Pond and widow Sarah Pond. In 1776 he bought ten acres on the north part of Cow Island adjoining land of the heirs of Joshua Pond, and the same year eight acres with house at Dedham, of Thomas Hastings. In 1783 he sold eighteen acres of the Dedham land to Aaron Davis, of Roxbury. The next year he bought twenty-five acres of Thomas Gardner in Needham, and in 1790 he bought thirty-nine acres in Brookline on both sides of the Needham road.

February 3, 1789, John Pond, attorney for Lyon, presented an inventory, the "absentee" having fallen heir to a legacy from his paternal grandfather. Another account in 1790, still calls him an "absentee." Nothing further is found of him. (One Sarah, wife of Joshua Pond, died, July 10, 1816, aged 54 years, and was buried at Copp's Hill, Boston).

He owned and lived on an estate distant about one mile from Dedham centre, on the turnpike to South Dedham. The house now stands, and is used as a Home for Inebriates.

He married at Dedham, May 29, 1769, SALLY, daughter of Nathaniel RICHARDS. She was admitted to full communion in the Dedham church, Aug. 30, 1772, and died, January 1, 1774, aged 31 years. (60) 169. SAMUEL POND, oldest son of David, was born at Ashuelot, N. H., March 2, 1742.

He, probably very soon after his marriage, settled at Bellingham, where he carried on his business of blacksmithing. He remained there but a short time, as he sold his estate to David Jones, April 23, 1771. Where he resided until 1782, does not appear; in that year, then of Barre, he bought land there, but sold the following year. It is said that he settled at Addison, Vermont, in 1790, and there he resided until his death.

He marched April 20, 1775, under Capt. John Black, in a company of minute men raised in Barre and vicinity.

He married at Wrentham, Oct. 28, 1766, ESTHER BLAKE, who died at Addison, Vt., Jan. 11, 1821. She is described by an aged man now living in Addison, as "a little black-eyed woman, smart as lightning."

He was a tanner and cordwainer, and settled first at Douglas. He purchased in 1774, sixty acres of land in Mendon of Amos Craigin, and returned to his native place. He was, however, a resident of Douglas in 1777, and until 1780, when his name disappears from the county records. In 1783, he was living in Belchertown, and with his wife Silvia, joined with others in conveying an estate lying in Medfield and Medway. This is the last that we know of him—nor do records of Mendon show any issue.

He marched to Roxbury, April 19, 1775, in the third company from Mendon.

He married at Mendon, April 4, 1770, SILVIA WHITE.

(61) 171. STEPHEN POND, son of Stephen, date and place of birth not discovered, was a resident of Mansfield, and trader.

He marched to Roxbury, April 19, 1775, in the 7th company of militia, from Mansfield, under Col. John Daggett. Served 25 days in Rhode Island from Dec. 8, 1776, under the same colonel. Was corporal under Capt. Samuel Robinson, Col. Josiah Whitney, six weeks from July 29, 1778; and served in the "Secret Service," with Capt. Isaac Hodges, Col. George Williams, from Sept. 25 to Oct. 31, 1777.

June 4, 1773, he bought for £52,10, 27 acres, 17 rods on the west side of a road leading from Edward Tucker's to house of Lt. Stephen Pond, adjoining the latter's land. In 1782, he sold 10 acres of this to Elisha Skinner, and the same date 19 acres on the east side of "Wadeing River" and the mill creek. In 1781, he bought of his brother Gideon, three parcels of land and the buildings thereon, which had been set off from their father's estate. In 1786, he bought of his brother Joshua, for £25, a lot of land on the main street, 40 feet front, with the shop thereon. February 27, 1787, he bought of his brother Gideon, one half of the second wall pew west from the pulpit in the Mansfield meeting-house.

He married (published Nov. 21, 1777), SARAH GILBERT, of Norton, who, from her not being mentioned in his will, probably died before him.

He died at Mansfield in the spring of 1793.

His will, dated March 18, 1793, was presented, May 9, 1793. It leaves to his son Gilbert, two-thirds of his estate, and to his daughter the remainder; the son to receive a good education, the daughter "such an education as a woman requires." His brother Joshua was made the executor.

The issue of Stephen and Sarah Pond, both born at Mansfield, were:

432. HANNAH, b. July 4, 1779; not traced.

433. GILBERT, b. April 8, 1781; not traced.

(61) 172. JOSHUA POND, son of Stephen, date and place of birth not discovered, settled at Norton, and in deeds was styled "gentleman."

He marched, April 19, 1775, with Capt. Benjamin Morey, Colonel John Daggett, from Norton; was in the Secret Service with Captain Isaac Hodges, Col. George Williams, from Sept. 25, to Oct. 31, 1777; was corporal with Capt. Isaac Trow, Col. Isaac Dean, for nine days in Rhode Island, from August 1, 1780. His name is on the list of pensioners for eight months service in 1775, under Capt. Silas Cobb, Col. Timothy Walker.

He bought, Oct. 30, 1786, of his brother Gideon, a lot of land 40 feet square with "merchant shop" thereon, on the western side of the highway in Mansfield, surrounded on three sides by land of Stephen Pond. The next day he sold the estate to his other brother Stephen.

July 7, 1795, he bought of Benjamin Fairbanks one hundred acres of farm on the east side of the highway in Norton; and the same year he bought of Moses and Elizabeth Williams swamp land in Raynham, which Elizabeth had inherited from her father Nathan Hodges. March 27, 1801, the widow Elizabeth Pond, then of Attleboro', sold the portion of her deceased husband's estate, which had been set off to her.

The date of Joshua Pond's marriage and the family name of his wife are not found, and from the absence of the mention in town records of any children, as well as from the tenor of his will, it is probable that he had no issue. He died at Norton about Nov. 1, 1798.

His will was dated Oct. 29, 1798, and presented Nov. 6. It names wife ELIZABETH, gives $5 to Gilbert Pond, $5 to Hannah, wife of Moses Richardson, and the residue of the estate to Moses, son of Stephen Wilmarth. The inventory includes 120 acres of farm land at Norton, seven acres in Mansfield, one half pew in Norton meeting-house, and three shares in the Norton Academy.

(61) 174. GIDEON POND, son of Stephen, was born at Mansfield, June 5, 1760; was a trader of Mansfield.

He was a private in the 4th Regiment, commanded by Col. Isaac Dean, and enlisted Aug. 1, 1780. He served in the Continental army thirty-six months.

He sold, Nov. 30, 1781, for £74.5, to Jacob Skinner, 11 acres, a part of his share of his father's estate, on the west side of the highway, adjoining land sold at the same time to his brother Stephen; also to his brother Stephen, for £214, three parcels of land with buildings; to Abiel Lane, for £163, forty-three acres on the east side of the highway, and to Benjamin Bates, a piece of ten acres, all being from his portion of his father's estate. Oct. 30, 1786, he sold to his brother Joshua the shop and forty feet lot, on the highway, and the following February, to his brother Stephen, his portion of the family pew in the Mansfield meeting-house. His name, after this last date, disappears from the records of town and county, nor does it appear that at that time he had either wife or child.

(63) 183. ADAM POND, son of Ebenezer, was born at Wrentham, July 15, 1769.

He settled at Weathersfield, Vt., where he had purchased a farm. He inherited from his grandfather, David Pond, "immense physical strength, standing considerably over six feet in height, and was noted the country round for his feats of strength and endurance. His scythes and axes, made expressly for him, were huge affairs that no one but himself could handle." He married SARAH BILLINGS, who was born Sept. 13, 1772, and died at Weathersfield.

*James Otis was undoubtedly the proper rendering of this given name. The fashion of abbreviated nicknames which largely prevailed at that time readily contracted it to Jemotis or Jemotes, and it appears in the records, invariably, in one of these two forms. Singularly enough, however, it is spelled in full upon the tomb-stone—"James Otis." Children, during the last century, were frequently christened by such familiar appellatives as Billy, Sally, Betsey, Polly, and the like, and I have generally preferred, in the compilation of these pages, to retain the name thus bestowed.
